Actions arising from CAMEL

5. What did you take back to your own institution from previous study visits?
6. What effect has this had on your own or colleagues practice?
7. What do you think you will act upon from this study visit?

Learning in CAMEL

8. What do you feel you have learned from participating in CAMEL?
9. How do you think being part of a community of practice has influenced this (if at all)?

CAMEL community of practice

The CAMEL group have suggested that ‘community of practice’ be taken to mean:

“Openness – sharing of real issues frankly and honestly within the safety of a non-judgmental group but also the opportunity to challenge practices without criticism.”

10. In what ways do you think the CAMEL Community of Practice is developing successfully?
11. What improvements could be made to encourage this development or enhance sustainability?
12. How appropriate do you feel the composition of the group is? (in terms of the size of group, mix of sectors, similarities/differences in issues facing each partner)
13. What advice would you give to others who might use the CAMEL model to develop a community of practice?
